

“A” on the map is the Traders Hotel. The DVD store is in (or very close to) the oval I’ve drawn on the map. The store windows are papered over (posters, magazines, etc.) and they are usually playing loud music in front of the store. It is on the same side of the alley as Traders, and there are 3-4 steps going up to the front of the door.

You’ll notice the marking for “Orso Goloso” near the oval so don’t be fooled – this is the old location for the Italian restaurant.

Cars can either be parked at the Traders driveway, or just in front of the DVD store.
