

Lawless

The movie takes place in 1931 at Franklin in Virginia. At this time, this state was famous for its production of moonshine and the three Bondurant brothers are notorious traffickers: Jack (Shia LaBeouf), the youngest, ambitious, impulsive, wants to transform the small family business in major traffic. Howard (Jason Clarke), the cadet, is the fighter of the family but very loyal. Forrest (Tom Hardy), the eldest, is like a chief and is determined to protect his family from new rules imposed by a new economic world.

Alone against a corrupt police, an arbitrary justice and gangster rivals the three brothers write their legend: invincible and immortal. This movie is about a true story focus on Bondurant family.

I have appreciated this movie because even if the story is simple, it is efficient. I spent a good time. Indeed, the casting is great especially with Tom Hardy and his acting impressive. In addition, Shia LaBeouf (best known for Transformers movies) and Jason Clarke demonstrate the importance of family values, more important than anything else. Besides, second roles acted by Jessica Chastain (Maggie in the movie) and Dane DeHaan (Cricket Pate) give a different view about the story and legibility about brothers acts. Finally, this movie worth to be seen. Although i regret the end because too short and less worked.

The Hobbit : An unexpected journey

The story tells the adventure of Bilbo Baggins (Martin Freeman) who wants to regain lost Dwarf Kingdom of Erebor, conquered by the dragon Smaug. Moreover, that is why the young Hobbit joined 13 dwarves whose leader is none other than the legendary warrior Thorin Ecu-de-Chêne (Richard Armitage).

Bilbo meets the creature that will change forever the course of his life: Gollum. This is with Gollum that Bilbo Baggins will get the "precious" ring from Gollum, with its powerful hidden powers ... This simple gold ring is linked to the fate of Middle-earth without Bilbo knows it.

In my opinion, I don't really appreciate this movie as The Lord of the Rings because this movie is for children. Indeed, in The Lord of the Rings movie there are violence, blood, sadness, adrenaline, suspense, action, magic and others cool stuff but there, with The Hobbit, I thought I watched a Shrek movie. There aren't bloods, a little bit of violence, bad jokes... but good music. Unfortunately, in this we lost the magic of The Middle-Earth. I hope the next film will be better and darker.
