Homeschooling

It is a promotional video for homeschooling/ (a promotional music video taking a stand for homeschooling)

It reuses the Addams Family's theme song,

Homeschooling is a new trend the USA, although it dates back to the 19th Century : parents prefer to educate their children at home rather than sending them to school.

The Children's school day begins and ends at home: the parents are the tutors.

Nevertheless, people are very critical with homeschool families.

Watch this video and say all you can about it.

Why is creationism related to homeschool families?
